Philosophical and Spiritual Perspectives on Decent Work Dominique Peccoud, 2004 This volume reflects on the values behind the ILO's Decent Work Agenda and provides a forum for contributors from various humanistic, philosophical, spiritual and religious traditions to express their views on the significance of work at all levels of society, from the individual person to the global community. Common, universal values are explored, as well as differences, in order to shed more light on the concept of decent work. In all societies, there is an ethical dimension to work, connected to the rights and entitlements of those who perform it. This also includes spiritual value such as dignity, personal identity, a sense of purpose in life, the divine call to work and so on. In this book, contributors - from the Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Confucian, and various secular traditions - come together to exchange comments and reflections on the floor of decency as defined by the ILO: freedom of association, eradication of forced and compulsory labour, abolition of child labour and elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation. It is hoped that this type of approach will be inspiring. Before embarking on major international strategic papers, legal instruments and public policies, the systematic consultation of an interfaith and humanistic forum would enable cultural and religious views to be taken into consideration. In this way such instruments would be anchored in shared values and not influenced by any one dominant conception of human existence in the world.

The White Wall Emily Flitter, 2024-04-09 A deeply reported examination of the systemic racism inside the American financial services industry exposes practices designed to maintain the racial wealth gap, and draws on data, history, legal scholarship, and personal stories to provide a look at what it means to bank while Black.

Meltdown Duncan Mavin, 2024-11-07 'This is more than a richly detailed story about the hubris, corruption and incompetence that doomed Credit Suisse; it's a stark warning to all of us about what happens when we let bankers do what they like' - Oliver Bullough, bestselling author of Butler to the World --- For centuries, Swiss banks have served the globe's wealthiest individuals, employing a strict culture of anonymity and gaining massive wealth in the process. But when Credit Suisse collapsed, the veil of secrecy came down and the world was suddenly privy to the corruption, scandal and empty hubris that keep our biggest banks alive. It was a 166-year-old bastion of Swiss banking, amongst the most important and influential financial institutions in the world - but a veneer of high-class service disguised a darker, dirtier reality. From its sterile Zurich headquarters, the bank catered to a clientele that included dictators, drug dealers and former Nazi officers, and helped fleece its own clients out of billions of dollars. This continued for decades, even as Credit Suisse continued to expand, acquiring smaller banks and granting its own executives lucrative bonus contracts. Meltdown is the story of how the house of cards fell apart. Bloomberg investigative journalist and bestselling author of Pyramid of Lies Duncan Mavin takes readers inside the bank's hushed marble corridors, detailing its secretive culture and the series of increasingly selfish decisions, made by a handful of men at the top, which ultimately led to disaster. This is the fascinating history of one of the biggest financial institutions of our times - and a thrilling exposé of the wider financial services sector - which promises to give readers a shocking and brutally honest look into a previously-unknown world of greed, lies and unrelenting human ambition. --- A riveting autopsy of how one of banking's titans gradually, then suddenly, crumbled under the weight of its own misdeeds - Bradley Hope, New York Times bestselling author of Billion Dollar Whale and Blood and Oil This financial thriller of a book offers a tantalising glimpse into the rot at the heart of one of the world's most powerful banks - Parmy Olson, bestselling author of We Are Anonymous and Supremacy We're used by now to bankers behaving badly, but Duncan Mavin takes it to another shocking, anger-inducing level. Credit Suisse stood for propriety, but he shows this to be a total fabrication - Chris Blackhurst, former editor of The Independent and bestselling author of Too Big to Jail A gripping story of power, greed and panic, and a humbling reminder of the enormous cost of capitalism going awry - Josie Cox, author of Women, Money and Power

The Conversation Robert Livingston, 2021-02-02 A FINANCIAL TIMES BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR • An essential tool for individuals, organizations, and communities of all sizes to jump-start dialogue on racism and bias and to transform well-intentioned statements on diversity into concrete actions—from a leading Harvard social psychologist. NAACP IMAGE AWARD NOMINEE FOR OUTSTANDING LITERARY ACHIEVEMENT • LONGLISTED FOR THE PORCHLIGHT BUSINESS BOOK AWARD • FINALIST FOR THE FT/MCKINSEY BUSINESS BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD “Robert Livingston is one of America’s most respected social psychologists studying diversity. He has a unique ability to strip out the judgmentalism that can warp people’s thinking about race and racism . . . and therefore he can reach a broad audience, educate them about the research, and bring them along when he talks about solutions.”—Jonathan Haidt, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Anxious Generation How can I become part of the solution? In the wake of the social unrest of 2020 and growing calls for racial justice, many business leaders and ordinary citizens are asking that very question. This book provides a compass for all those seeking to begin the work of anti-racism. In The Conversation, Robert Livingston addresses three simple but profound questions: What is racism? Why should everyone be more concerned about it? What can we do to eradicate it? For some, the existence of systemic racism against Black people is hard to accept because it violates the notion that the world is fair and just. But the rigid racial hierarchy created by slavery did not collapse after it was abolished, nor did it end with the civil rights era. Whether it's the composition of a company's leadership team or the composition of one's neighborhood, these racial divides and disparities continue to show up in every facet of society. For Livingston, the difference between a solvable problem and a solved problem is knowledge, investment, and determination. And the goal of making organizations more diverse, equitable, and inclusive is within our capability. Livingston's lifework is showing people how to turn difficult conversations about race into productive instances of real change. For decades he has translated science into practice for numerous organizations, including Airbnb, Deloitte, Microsoft, Under Armour, L'Oreal, and JPMorgan Chase. In The Conversation, Livingston distills this knowledge and experience into an eye-opening immersion in the science of racism and bias. Drawing on examples from pop culture and his own life experience, Livingston, with clarity and wit, explores the root causes of racism, the factors that explain why some people care about it and others do not, and the most promising paths toward profound and sustainable progress, all while inviting readers to challenge their assumptions.

The Notorious ESG Vasuki Shastry, 2023-09-04 Environment, Social, Governance (ESG) has become the noun, verb, and adjective of the modern business era. Faced with societal and regulatory pressure, big business in America, Asia, and Europe has been forced to define and articulate ESG goals to combat climate change and save the planet.

Beyond Being Black Comfort Babalogbon, 2009-12 Beyond Being Black is a self development book based on global research within the USA, UK and Africa, on issues affecting the potential achievement of the black race across the world. Whether we realize it or not, there are subtle yet powerful preset challenges that confront blacks living in the developed and developing nations across the world. Not every black person experiences these challenges, but a very high and disproportionate percentage does, to varying degrees. In this book, Comfort provides factual global data in an effort to reveal how these preset challenges can hinder progress and what you can do as a black person to creatively overcome them. Never before has a book like this been written, which focuses on the unique needs of the global black community. A fascinating and remarkable read, through this book, Comfort guides and instruct blacks worldwide to take ownership of their potential progress. Be it one or one hundred steps, Comfort advocates the need to make progress at all cost, no matter how little - not just for yourself, but also for the future of your children and all those who look up to you. This is a 3-in-1 book combining educational research, over 150 inspirational stories of blacks worldwide, and a step-by-step practical action plan on how to overcome preset challenges, start a new life of peak performance and continue on to achieve potential success. This one-of-a-kind book is an irrefutable must read for every black man, woman and child; an inspirational and educational reference guide for the black community-a book that you can dip into time and time again. In Comfort's typical style of direct and down-to-earth passion, she provides a wealth of practical insight regarding what it takes to be a role model for your family, community, and nation. The stories, scenarios, practical tips and techniques all combine to create an easy to read yet profound wealth of depth and clarity. The book provides specific, detailed, and step-by-step direction on transforming your life as a black person regardless of whether you are located in Europe, Africa, USA or South America.

The Monfort Plan Jaime Pozuelo-Monfort,2010-03-18 The Monfort Plan is a five-year, forward looking plan to eradicate extreme poverty from the developing world, and details how microfinance has made a difference to developing countries. This book proposes a new institution based in the developing world with the potential to provide a basic, free, and universal service in the areas of water, sanitation, healthcare, and education to the extreme poor worldwide. The provision will be subject to a certain degree of conditionality in areas ranging from corruption to legal environment. The new institution will be established in a new international territory based within a specific country in Sub-Saharan Africa and will emerge in 2015. In The Monfort Plan author Jaime Pozuelo-Monfort engineers and designs a solution to lessen the burden of poverty. In order to do so he relies on the social sciences to bring about innovation and forward looking economic policies and financial instruments in the context of a paradigm shift. This book presents a multidisciplinary approach to policymaking that combines a range of fields in the social sciences, looking at the history behind the Marshall Plan, the formation of the European Union, and the Bretton Woods Institutions, in order to determine how a Marshall Plan for Africa-and the creation of New Institutions in the developing world-could work. We live a moment of crisis in which creative policymaking might prove useful when proposing outcomes for a revitalized framework for capitalism to thrive and better serve the world. Walks you through the technicalities of the new architecture of capitalism in a straightforward manner Provides a holistic view of how microfinance combined with the right economic policies and financial instruments could help change the world for the poor Contains sweeping and detailed recommendations on how to build a new capitalist paradigm that helps elevate the poor and improve the human condition Incorporating commentary from some of the top minds in the field of microfinance, this book puts the method of microfinance in perspective.

The Anti-Racist Organization Shereen Daniels,2022-05-09 Tackle systemic racism in the workplace with practical strategies In The Anti-Racist Organization: Dismantling Systemic Racism in the Workplace, HR strategist Shereen Daniels delivers an incisive and honest discussion of how business leaders can change workplace practices to create a more anti-racist and equitable environment. The author draws on her personal and client-facing experience, historical fact, legal proceedings, HR insights, and quantitative analysis to equip readers with the knowledge and tools they need to transform their companies. Daniels also looks at: The role of executive leaders and how to push past discomfort to credibly and authentically lead change Strategies for recognising the problem of systemic racism and implementing impactful solutions Why it's important to empower colleagues to be pioneers of change and how to do that Explanations of why diversity and inclusion initiatives haven't yet solved the problem Ways language can either be a weapon to perpetuate systemic racism or a tool to dismantle An indispensable exploration of how systemic racism is engrained into business structures, policies, and procedures, The Anti-Racist Organization: Dismantling Systemic Racism in the Workplace belongs in the libraries of all business leaders seeking to make their workplace more inclusive and equitable.

How to Build a Share Portfolio Rodney Hobson, 2011-03-14 Effective share portfolios for the private investor Running an efficient portfolio of shares means buying and selling the shares that make the most sense for you, and at the right time and price. Rodney Hobson, author of the bestselling Shares Made Simple, sets out how to do this without having to be a financial expert or full-time trader. Using plain language, he takes the reader simply and logically through the process, giving helpful examples and real-life case studies at every turn. In How to Build a Share Portfolio you can: - find out how to determine the right objectives for your portfolio - learn how to pick shares that fulfill your investment ambitions, and when to drop those that no longer do so - understand how best to set your portfolio's size and ensure it is diversified against risk - discover the best ways of monitoring your portfolio, and of reducing losses and rebalancing it when necessary. Anyone who is thinking of investing, however much or however little, will benefit from the information, advice and guidance contained in this book. Similarly, those who already have a portfolio will find it helps them to stand back and reassess whether they are making the most of their money and whether their portfolio is meeting their needs.

Africanistan Serge Michailof, 2018-06-29 In Africa, progress can be seen across the board. But the important question is whether this so-called progress is sustainable. The continent is a powder keg: the powder is demographics and unemployment the detonator. By 2050, the number of young people of working age in Africa is expected to be three times that of China's. But will there be enough jobs for them? What is troubling for the continent is even more dramatic for the Sahel, a huge region of about 100 million inhabitants where insecurity is spreading like a bushfire. Despite major differences in geography and culture, there are huge similarities between the Sahel and Afghanistan: a demographic impasse, stagnating agriculture, widespread rural misery, high unemployment, deep ethnic and religious fault lines, weak states, regional instability, drug trafficking, and the spread of radical Islam. And unfortunately the same recipes that failed in Afghanistan are being rolled out in the Sahel. Are we headed to a 'Sahelistan' and to an 'Africanistan'? Serge Michailof helps us find the answer to this important question.

Pyramid of Lies Duncan Mavin, 2022-07-21 An epic true story of ambition, greed and hubris - the collapse of Greensill Capital is a billion pound scandal that shredded the reputation of a British Prime Minister. 'The British version of Bad Blood . . . [but] better' - The Sunday Times 'Terrific' - The Observer, Book of the Week Pyramid of Lies charts the meteoric rise and spectacular downfall of Lex Greensill and his company. He had a simple idea that disrupted a trillion dollar industry and drew in Swiss bankers, global CEOs, and world leaders, including former British Prime Minister, David Cameron. But a staid business model concealed dubious practices, as Greensill made increasingly risky loans to fraudulent companies using other people's money. Financial journalist Duncan Mavin, who helped expose Greensill, tells the incredible story of how a former sugar-cane farmer became one of the world's richest men before falling back to earth. With a globe-circling narrative full of scandal and intrigue, Pyramid of Lies reveals how the grubby world of shadow banking really operates. 'Forensic and riveting' - The New Statesman 'Meticulously researched' - The Daily Telegraph

Le piège africain de Macron Antoine Glaser, Pascal Airault, 2021-04-07 Mai 2017 : quinze ans après son stage d'énarque au Nigeria, Emmanuel Macron est élu président de la République française. Il promet de faire souffler un vent nouveau sur les relations avec le continent africain. Fort de sa jeunesse et de son libéralisme, il dénonce une « Françafrique » postcoloniale dont il ne se sent pas comptable et mise sur les nouvelles générations pour réconcilier les mémoires des deux côtés de la Méditerranée. Mais il se heurte vite au réel. Les autocrates, à la longévité exceptionnelle, ne tardent pas à lui rappeler qu'ils sont les derniers des Mohicans à défendre les intérêts français, en Afrique comme dans les organisations internationales. Sur un continent mondialisé redevenu géostratégique, la France ne pèse guère plus que par son armée dans le Sahel et quelques empires économiques familiaux. Pour échapper à cette perte d'influence globale, Emmanuel Macron joue un joker inédit : « l'Afrique » en France. Il crée un Conseil présidentiel pour l'Afrique composé essentiellement de Français originaires du continent, dans le dessein de dépoussiérer la politique africaine de l'Hexagone. Au terme d'une enquête de deux ans auprès de multiples interlocuteurs, les auteurs dressent un constat implacable : malgré des succès, l'ardoise magique de la « génération Macron » n'a pu effacer d'un trait, plus d'un demi-siècle après les indépendances, des relations ambiguës. L'offensive de charme, notamment auprès des diasporas, du chef de l'État n'a pas réussi à convaincre l'électorat des banlieues, comme il l'admet dans une longue interview exclusive. Une épine dans le pied à l'approche de la présidentielle de 2022 ? Ou comment, par un singulier effet boomerang, Emmanuel Macron risque d'être piégé autant en France qu'en Afrique. Journaliste et spécialiste de l'Afrique, Antoine Glaser a été directeur de la rédaction d'Africa Intelligence. Il est notamment l'auteur de Comment la France a perdu l'Afrique (avec S. Smith, Calmann-Lévy, 2005) et, chez Fayard, de Nos chers espions en Afrique (avec T. Hofnung, 2018). Journaliste éditorialiste à L'Opinion, Pascal Airault a réalisé de nombreux reportages pour Jeune Afrique. Il est l'auteur de Françafrique. Opérations secrètes et affaires d'État (avec J.-P. Bat, Tallandier, 2016).

La Chute Mathilde Farine, 2023-06-29 Le 19 mars, la Suisse apprenait avec stupeur le rachat de Credit Suisse par UBS. Après des années d'une longue descente aux enfers, l'ancien fleuron bancaire se précipitait par désespoir dans les bras de son rival de toujours. Comment une banque vieille de 167 ans, qui a percé le tunnel du Gothard et développé l'industrie du pays, en est-elle arrivée là ? Cet ouvrage est une chronique d'une débâcle, dont les causes sont profondes et historiques. Une conquête de l'Amérique, dès les années 1980, qui a contaminé la culture de la banque, mettant les bonus et le profit à court terme au-dessus de toute autre valeur. Une croyance au-delà de toute raison dans les promesses de la banque d'investissement, alors qu'elle a été l'origine de multiples scandales et pertes financières. Des innombrables réorganisations, qui finissent par transformer la banque en trou noir, sur lequel plus personne ne semble avoir prise. Alors que la Suisse n'aura désormais plus qu'une grande banque, quelles leçons peut-on tirer de ce fiasco ? À PROPOS DE L'AUTEURE Mathilde Farine est journaliste au Temps depuis 2010. Diplômée de l'Institut des hautes études internationales et du développement à Genève, elle a commencé sa carrière à L'Agefi. Elle a ensuite dirigé les pages financières, puis la rubrique économie et finance du Temps, ainsi que celle de L'Hebdo. Décryptant la crise financière, puis la fin du secret bancaire, elle s'est spécialisée dans la finance. Correspondante à Zurich depuis 2017, elle est en position privilégiée pour suivre la transformation de la place financière suisse et les turpitudes de certaines de ses banques..

Arrogant comme un français en Afrique Antoine Glaser, 2016-03-09 La France se réveille en Afrique avec la gueule de bois. Elle pensait que tout y était encore sous son contrôle et que sa « science africaine » était infaillible. Tout cela n'est qu'un leurre : les destinées politiques, religieuses, sociales et économiques de ce continent lui ont complètement échappé. Par arrogance, les dirigeants français ne se sont jamais véritablement intéressés à la complexité de l'Afrique. Quant à ceux qui s'y sont installés tout au long de la guerre froide - coopérants venus pour enseigner ou militaires y vivant en famille -, ils ont plus souvent cherché à former des Africains à leur image qu'à comprendre leurs spécificités et leurs désirs. D'ailleurs, en France même, n'aime-t-on pas que les Afro-Français qui nous ressemblent ? Aujourd'hui, la France paie cher cette arrogance.

Les anciennes générations lui reprochent son ingratitude, tandis que les jeunes diplômés refoulés aux portes des consulats préfèrent poursuivre leurs études ailleurs. Les plus grands groupes industriels français perdent des contrats qu'ils pensaient leur être dus et des parts de marché face à leurs concurrents chinois. Les congrégations catholiques françaises sont vivement concurrencées par les Églises de réveil (évangéliques, pentecôtistes, charismatiques...), sans parler de l'expansion de l'islamisme radical. La méconnaissance de l'Afrique et des Africains a conduit la France à des analyses anachroniques et à sous-estimer la richesse de ce continent et de sa diaspora. C'est ce mépris qu'Antoine Glaser s'emploie à dénoncer ici. Il est temps de cesser de donner des leçons et d'apprendre de l'Afrique !

Capacity Building, Governance, and Economic Reform in Africa Mr.Michel Dessart,Mr.Roland E. Ubogu,2001-10-02 This volume, edited by Michel A. Dessart and Roland E. Ubogu, records the presentations made and discussions held during the Inaugural Seminar of the Joint Africa Institute (JAI). The JAI was established in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, by the African Development Bank, the IMF, and the World Bank to meet the pressing training needs of the African continent. The participants discussed four main topics: the changing role of the state, governance, and new capacity requirements; the challenge of achieving macroeconomic stability in Africa; the requirement for capacity building in Africa; and the role of international financial institutions in capacity building in Africa. The seminar was held in November 1999, but the topics and recommendations of the seminar remain current and of particular importance today. The seminar was held in English and French, and both language versions are contained in this volume. 240 pp. 2001

Market Abuse and Insider Dealing Barry Rider,Kern Alexander,Stuart Bazley,Jeffrey Bryant,2022-10-28 Market abuse and insider dealing remains and always has been a real concern for all those that operate in the financial sector. Some of the earliest laws relating to trade outlaw attempts to artificially interfere with the proper functions of the markets and ensure fairness. With recent changes to both the UK and European regimes the line between what is normal (and sensible) business practice and what may now be classified as market abuse is becoming increasingly fine. This raises questions about communications between financial institutions and investors, and about corporate and analyst access. Market Abuse and Insider Dealing provides guidance on and explanation of the range of potential legal and regulatory responses to this complex area of law. Providing a thorough analysis and assessment of the law relating to market abuse and insider dealing, the new fourth edition includes: - analysis of the impact of Brexit - significant new case law and legislation including MiFID II; Money Laundering Regulations 2017; the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017; Criminal Finances Act 2017 with Unexplained Wealth Orders; The Fifth Money Laundering Directive - the new Corporate Governance Code - new content on: control and senior managers' responsibility/liability; the FCAs competition law jurisdiction where it is appropriate to do so in relation to market abuse; a new table of UK decided market abuse cases This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's Banking and Finance Law online service.

Demystifying Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Karamo NM Sonko, Mariama Sonko, 2023-08-10

Addressing a topic at the forefront of global interests in business and development, this book is the first comprehensive book in the world that addresses ESG holistically. It combines academic and practical content through multidisciplinary analysis, integrating economics, statistics, finance, strategic management and mathematics with an African focus. The book argues that ESG is largely in the interest of the firms/companies themselves, in addition to benefitting the larger society in which they exist. It also makes it everyone's responsibility to play a part in addressing global climate challenges. Thus, the book views the survival of the corporations, economies and the larger societies as interlinked. It will be of interest to researchers, policymakers and business persons in and outside of Africa.
